Called to be a licensed minister?

If you feel the call of God upon your life to be a licensed minister with Victory Outreach International, congratulations. It is now time to take the following steps:

1. Inform your pastor. He will affirm your calling and assist you. Are you debt-free? Are you in good health? Do you have a passport? Have you graduated from VETI yet? Are you ready to leave your church and join a ministry team across the country or overseas? This is where the need is. If you cannot leave your church; start a Victory Center and help your pastor build people and reach your city for Christ. You do not need a ministers' license to do that. If you have graduated from VETI, consider attending the Third Wave School of Leadership Campus.

2. Get involved and serve in your church. Get to know the leadership of the church and let the leaders get to know you. Learn to serve people and stay close and available to those in leadership. Be faithful, be fruitful, and be a great follower. Make disciples and learn how to develop leaders. Your gift will make a way for you especially if you have a good attitude. Don't look for excuses instead, create opportunities to serve. If you are serious about reaching the world for Christ, be mission-minded and join United We Can.
3. If you are a young adult.
If you are between the ages of 18 and 30 enroll in the UTC. There you will be challenged to grow in character, leadership, people skills, and mission outreach. Plus you will be exposed to the vision of V.O.I. in a greater way. If you are a UTC, VETI, or Victory Home graduate consider the Third Wave Leadership Campus.
4. Prepare yourself academically. One of the requirements to be a licensed minister at Victory Outreach is to complete formal Bible training at VETI or another school that provides the equivalent of an Associate degree in Bible and Theology (see below). New students click here.
5. Ensure that you are aware of the many VOI Training Pathways available to help you discover the calling of God upon your life.

Part of the application process for ministerial licensing includes taking an exam to test your knowledge of the Bible, doctrine, theology, ethics, ministry, and V.O.I. Check with your pastor for the dates of the exam.
